Facts And Circumstances Test - This is our initial year of fundraising activity. The small ratio of public funding is due to the need to acquire seed funding to develop and expand public solicitation programs. In fiscal year 2010 we are launching a public membership drive as well as a platform to allow citizen philanthropists to fund on the ground efforts. The activities of the organization will appeal to persons having broad common interest in the empowerment of women. The membership dues will be set at rates designed to make membership available to a broad cross section of the interested public and will not restrict membership.

Primary Exempt Purpose

New Course is primarily a grant making organization. This grant making process entails approximately 80% of our work. All implementation work by partners in developing countries. All activities are in furtherance of our exempt mission which includes the empowerment of women and girls in order to achieve sustainable development and conservation goals. Projects include such activities as building schools, funding food security programs, improved education for girls, access to health resources, building health facilities, improving water access, establishing protected areas. Because empowerment is only possible if women and girls have access to food, water, education and economic opportunities, these grants and activities are essential to providing options and opportunities for women and girls. 20% of our effort is focused on communication and in building the capacity of partners to implement strategies that empower women and girls and improve the efforts of others groups.
